At its session on the 14th day of December, 2022, the Senate of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor Morris Kahn in recognition of his accomplishments as a business pioneer, innovator and philanthropist; his entrepreneurial prowess in founding a range of successful business ventures, among them the multinational corporation, Amdocs; his expansive philanthropic giving to causes including education, biomedical research, youth leadership, space exploration and the marine environment; his commitment to Israeli science, as demonstrated through his generous support of diverse university- and hospital-based projects, including the 3D Cancer Printing Initiative at Tel Aviv University; and his staunch Zionist spirit and love for Israel, which he has expressed not only through his own family’s aliyah, but also through his ongoing endeavors to enhance Israel’s standing and image in the global arena, by conferring upon him the degree of DOCTOR PHILOSOPHIAE HONORIS CAUSA of Tel Aviv University.