Maestro Zubin Mehta

Honorary President and Co-Founder of the Buchmann-Mehta School of Music in recognition of his over 15 years of dedicated service to the Buchmann-Mehta School of Music; his success in bridging between the School and the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, which he led for five decades; his remarkable sixty-year international career as a conductor who has led some of the world's most notable orchestras; his profound commitment to training new generations of talented musicians from Israel and around the world to the highest performance standards; and his warm, valued and longstanding friendship toward the School, Tel Aviv University and the State of Israel.
